

Book Fair

“Grand Day” Event

Wednesday, March 14, 2018

Anytime between 8:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m.

St. Bernard School Gym

Grandparents and other loved ones are very important in children’s lives, and we are celebrating a day just for them. Because learning to read is the most important skill a child can learn, we’ve scheduled a special time for grandparents and other loved ones to celebrate reading during our Scholastic Book Fair. We ask you to invite GRANDS or other loved ones to visit our Scholastic Book Fair with your child(ren).

Who is considered a GRAND...?
GRANDS =

G - Grandparents
R - Relatives
A - Aunts & Uncles
N - Neighbors
D - Devoted Caregivers

A few items to remember when planning to attend our GRAND Day Event:

- Students will be excused from class for a short period of time to shop the Book Fair with their GRAND(S).
- GRANDS may come straight to the gym upon arrival, and we will have “runners” to get their grandchild(ren) from class to come and shop with them.
- Every child that shops with a GRAND during the GRAND Day Event will be entered into a drawing to win a Scholastic Book Fair gift certificate to spend at our Book Fair.
- We accept Cash, Checks, and Credit Cards. All checks must be written to St. Bernard School.
- All profits help to add more books to our St. Bernard School Library.
- Please respect the following times for students:
 - PreK & K naptime is from 1:30 - 2:30 p.m.
 - Student Lunch Times:
 - PreK & Kindergarteners = 10:30 - 11:00 a.m.
 - 1st & 2nd Graders = 11:00 - 11:25 a.m.
